

Global Literary Horizons II

Intersections- Literature, Technology, Society, and the Future of Human expression

Online International Conference

11-12 July 2026

Presented by The Literary Roundtable

About Us

The Literary Roundtable is an emerging intellectual and cultural platform dedicated to promoting dialogue, creativity, academic exchange, and interdisciplinary learning. Through conferences, public speaking forums, workshops, talk shows, and scholarly engagements, the organisation seeks to create meaningful spaces for ideas to flourish.

"Where disciplines converge and new ideas emerge."

About This Conference

Global Literary Horizons 2.0 aims to bring together academicians, researchers, students, educators, writers, innovators, media professionals, and thinkers from across the globe to engage in vibrant conversations on the evolving relationship between literature, society, technology, culture, education, and human expression.

In an age shaped by artificial intelligence, digital media, global transformations, and changing human experiences, the conference seeks to explore how narratives continue to influence identities, ethics, communication, and creativity.

"Where disciplines converge and new ideas emerge."

Objectives of the conference

- To encourage multidisciplinary academic dialogue.
- To explore emerging trends in literature, media, technology, and society.
- To provide a platform for young researchers and scholars.
- To promote critical thinking, innovation, and cultural exchange.
- To create opportunities for networking and collaboration.

"Where disciplines converge and new ideas emerge."

Themes

Literature & Society

- Contemporary Literary Discourses
- Identity and Representation
- Gender Studies and Feminist Narratives
- Diaspora and Postcolonial Studies
- Mythology and Retellings

Technology & Media

- Artificial Intelligence and Creativity
- Digital Humanities
- Social Media Narratives
- Cinema, OTT Platforms and Culture
- Cyber Culture and Communication
- Climate Narratives
- Ethics and Human Values

Education & Communication

- Public Speaking and Communication Skills
- Language and Learning
- Future Classrooms and Technology
- Education Policies and Innovation

Humanities & Environment

- Mental Health and Literature
- Environmental Humanities
- Climate Narratives
- Ethics and Human Values

Who can participate

The conference welcomes participation from:

- Faculty Members
- Research Scholars
- Undergraduate and Postgraduate Students
- Independent Researchers
- Educators and School Teachers
- Writers, Poets, Journalists and Media Professionals
- Professionals from related disciplines

Modes of participation

Participants may present their papers in:

- Offline Mode
- Online Virtual Mode
- Panel Discussions
- Interactive Academic Sessions

Selected papers will be considered for publication in an edited volume or conference proceedings with ISBN/ISSN, subject to peer review and editorial guidelines.

Submission guidelines

- Abstracts should be between 250–300 words.
- Full papers must follow MLA/APA format.
- Original and unpublished work only.
- Selected papers may undergo plagiarism screening.
- Certificates will be provided to all registered participants.

Participate Now!

SCAN TO JOIN WHATSAPP GROUP

SCAN TO REGISTER

SCAN TO PAY FOR REGISTRATION (FEES - 700₹ ONLY)

 Email:

theliteraryroundtable26@gmail.com

 Coordinators:

Ms. Anjali Gurung

+91 9756949019

Ms. Sarika Duseja

+91 7300829444

 WhatsApp Group:

Connect with participants

Quick Info:

 Online Conference

 11-12 July 2026

 The Literary Roundtable

 Interdisciplinary Exchange